Current assistants that are eligible to compete in Junior Showmanship (meet age & amateur status requirements) may participate in NOHS.

STCA CHAMPIONS CHALLENGE

Eligibility

- Entry is by invitation only.
- All owners of entered dogs must be current members in good standing of the Staffordshire Terrier Club of America (STCA) at the time entries close.
- Eligible dogs must have earned one of the following AKC titles between January 1, 2025, and June 1, 2026: Champion (CH) & Grand Champion (GCH)
- Dogs will compete in one of the following classes: Male & Female

Judging Procedure

The Champion Challenge will be judged by a panel of three judges.

Each class will be evaluated by two judges using a rotating assignment established by the Event Committee. If the two assigned judges are unable to reach a unanimous decision, the third judge will serve as the referee (tie-break) judge.

Judges will evaluate each exhibit individually and independently and may not confer during the preliminary evaluations.

Judging Assignments: Judges A and B will evaluate the Male class, while Judges B and C will evaluate the Female class. The judge not assigned to a class will serve as the referee (tie-break) judge should the two assigned judges be unable to reach a unanimous decision. The Best Male and Best Female winners will then be evaluated by Judges A and C to determine the STCA Champion Challenge Trophy Winner. Once the Trophy Winner has been selected, the Reserve Winner from that class will return to compete against the remaining class winner for the Reserve STCA Champion Challenge.

Awards

The class winners will advance to the final competition for:

- STCA Champion Challenge Trophy Winner
- Reserve STCA Champion Challenge

Champion Challenge Trophy Restriction

To encourage new competition each year, the winner of the STCA Champion Challenge Trophy will not be eligible to compete in the Champion Challenge the following year, even if they earn an eligible title during the qualifying period. This restriction applies only to the overall Champion Challenge Trophy Winner.

Final Competition

The winners of the Male and Female classes will compete for the STCA Champion Challenge Trophy.

The overall winner will be selected by the judging panel in accordance with the event judging procedures. After the Trophy Winner has been selected, the Reserve Winner from the winning class will return to compete against the remaining class winner for the Reserve STCA Champion Challenge award.

We look forward to welcoming you to the inaugural STCA Champion Challenge and to an exciting week at the STCA National Specialty. Congratulations once again on your qualification, and best of luck!

First Annual Stud Dog Social

The STCA is excited to present its first-ever Stud Dog Social at the 2026 National Specialty!

Join us Monday evening following the General Membership Meeting for a casual, fun, and informative opportunity to meet potential sires for your future litters, speak with their owners, and see the dogs up close. This event gives stud dog owners the opportunity to showcase their dogs—including young, up-and-coming prospects. Stud dogs will be presented in three categories:

- Up-and-Coming: Dogs under two years of age with preliminary health clearances.
- Tested: Dogs over two years of age with CHIC certification that have not yet produced enough litters to establish a breeding record.
- Proven: CHIC-certified stud dogs that have been bred and have consistently produced recognizable traits in their offspring.

Stud dog owners are encouraged to bring photographs, stud packets, pedigrees, digital media, and any other relevant materials. Each participant will be provided with a display table and chair. The dogs will also be introduced and presented on leash.

For more information or to sign up, please contact Mary Jo Morgan at buckeyeamstaffs@gmail.com

AMERICAN
KENNEL CLUB®

AKC® Code of Sportsmanship and Civility

Preface: The tradition of competitive purebred dog events predates 1884—the year the American Kennel Club (AKC®) was founded. Those involved in these sports share core values, including a strong commitment to sportsmanship and a welcoming, respectful culture that embraces the diverse community united by a love of dogs.

These values are evident across all aspects of the sport: conformation, performance, companion, and family dog activities. Many believe that the enduring principles of sportsmanship and civility are key reasons the sport has thrived for over 140 years.

Recognizing that periodically reaffirming our shared values strengthens our community, the revised code will be shared widely to highlight the foundational values and principles that define the sport.

- Sportspeople always place the welfare of their dog above all else.
- Sportspeople prioritize the long-term health and preservation of their breed, making decisions that reflect a deep commitment to responsible breeding and ownership.
- Sportspeople respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportspeople conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the sport, the American Kennel Club, and themselves.
- Sportspeople appreciate, encourage and support all who associate with and participate in the sports by fostering an environment where respect, equity, inclusion, and courtesy are foundational.
- Sportspeople understand, uphold and abide by all AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies.
- Sportspeople contribute to a positive atmosphere at events by avoiding negative gossip, disparagement, or unsportsmanlike behavior.
- Sportspeople extend their values of civility, fairness, and respect to all digital and social media platforms.
- Sportspeople actively support the education and mentorship of newcomers, helping them learn the rules, values, and traditions of the sport in a respectful way.
- Sportspeople recognize that they are role models in the sport, and strive to lead by example through humility, kindness, and ethical conduct.
- Sportspeople treat fellow exhibitors, judges, officials, volunteers, spectators, and AKC staff with dignity and respect, regardless of experience, background, or differences in opinion.
- Sportspeople are committed to fair play, honesty, courtesy, and competition, approaching both winning and losing with grace.
- Sportspeople understand that strong competition and civility can—and should—coexist. They appreciate the quality of their competitors, and the effort put forth by others.
- Sportspeople uphold their responsibilities to the sport of purebred dogs and refuse to let personal gain or self-interest influence their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsperson judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsperson judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsperson exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsperson exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- Sportspeople are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportspeople decline to exploit any positions of authority or recognition for personal advantage.
- Sportspeople appreciate those that have gone before them and realize they are responsible for maintaining and enhancing the sport for future generations.
